Funding for acquaintance stays at the Bauhaus-Universität Weimar

Funding for acquaintance stays for prospective doctoral candidates of the Bauhaus-Universität Weimar

The Bauhaus-Universität Weimar supports graduates as prospective doctoral candidates by funding of acquaintance stays in Weimar in 2016 and 2017. The funding consists of lump sums for travel and accommodation expenses.

Requirements.

- You live outside Germany
- You have an outstanding degree in Architecture & Urbanism, Engineering, Art & Design, or Media with regard to the research profile of the Bauhaus-Universität Weimar
- Your degree is recognised in Germany

5 steps to your visit in Weimar.

1. Inform yourself about the possibilities of a doctorate (individual or structured) at the Bauhaus-Universität Weimar: www.uni-weimar.de/doctorate

2. Find a suitable supervisor at the Bauhaus-Universität Weimar.

3. Contact your prospective doctoral supervisor (individual doctorate) or the doctoral programme coordinator (structured doctorate) at the Bauhaus-Universität Weimar regarding the possibility of an acquaintance stay in Weimar.

4. Send him or her a brief CV, your graduation certificate or a provisionally certificate of your university degree, a letter of motivation (in English or German) incl. information about the aim and expiry of the acquaintance stay, as well as a short description of the intended doctoral thesis subject (max. 2 pages).

5. If the application is confirmed by the Doctoral Candidate Admissions Board of the respective faculty you will receive a funding letter with detailed information about your visit in Weimar.
