

Invitation

The Hungarian Society of Urban Planning, Anah – French National Agency for Housing (Agence nationale de l'habitat),
CDC (Caisse des Dépôts et Consignations), ACT Consultants
and the MTA-VITA Foundation

kindly invite you to their common workshop on

'Practices and Research of Urban Renewal in East-Central European Cities'

to be held on November 26, 2007, 9 am-6 pm in the

Headquarters of the Hungarian Society of Urban Planning

1094 Budapest, Liliom utca 48.

The official language of the event is English

We are looking forward to your participation!

M T A - V I T A
F o u n d a t i o n

Program

- 9.00 am Welcome speech by Mr. Gábor Aczél, president of the Hungarian Society of Urban Planning
- 9.15 am Presentation of the project 'Urban Renewal Policies in East-Central European cities', by Patricia Couderc (Anah)
- 9.30 am General presentation of participants
- 10.30 am Presentation of the methodological problems of the study, by Sonia Fayman (ACT Consultants, Paris) and Krisztina Keresztély (ACT Consultants and MTA – VITA Foundation)
- 11.00 am Coffee break
- 11.20 am Methodological problems encountered by local partners – the case of the Leipzig study, by Elke Goltz (Bauhaus University, Weimar)
- 12.00 am General discussion about the methodological questions, together with the partners from Budapest, Krakow and Riga.
- 1.00 pm Lunch break
- 2.15 pm Main results of the Leipzig study and preliminary results of the Budapest study, by Sonia Fayman, Krisztina Keresztély and Elke Goltz. General discussion
- 3.00 pm Coffee break
- 4.00 pm Urban renewal practices in East-Central Europe. Round table discussion with invited experts from Budapest: Éva Beleznyai (Budapest City Hall), Viktória Szirmai (Centre for Regional Studies, Hungarian Academy of Sciences), Iván Tosics (Metropolitan Research Institute), Viktor Merker (Studio Metropolitana) and György Alföldi (RÉV8) as well as with the project partners: Elke Goltz, Monika Murzyn-Kupisz (International Cultural Centre, Krakow) and Zaiga Krisjan
(University of Riga). Moderator: Richard Ongjerth
- 5.30 pm Summarising and conclusions by Prof. György Enyedi (MTA – VITA Foundation) and Patricia Couderc (Anah)
- 6.00 pm End of the workshop.