

12 perspectives on the power
and paradox of wildness
in expanding urban design

Edited by Dorothee Rummel
and Hanna Hemberger
Published by M BOOKS

LET'S TALK

WILD!

With texts by Simone Böcker, Jan von
Brevern, Kerstin Ergenzinger, Hanna
Hemberger, Sandra Huning, Philip Koch,
Mona Mahall, Dulmini Perera, Anne
Rademacher, Caroline Rosenthal, Dorothee
Rummel, Matthias Stippich and Mara
Trübenbach and illustration by Max Guther

IS THIS THE TIME TO GO WILD?

Let's talk wild! brings together 12 perspectives from architecture, sociology, art history, literature, anthropology, and more—reframing wildness as a space to rethink urban and landscape design. The publication explores wildness as a creative, dynamic, and political impulse within cities—beyond romanticized clichés or commodified ecology. Join us for an evening of celebration, reflection, and wild ideas!

Thursday, September 25, 2025, 6 p.m.
Atelier Café, Campus Bauhaus-Universität Weimar

BOOK
LAUNCH

Stadt Raum Entwerfen
Urban and Regional Design
Bauhaus-Universität Weimar
Fakultät Architektur und Urbanistik
Geschwister-Scholl-Straße 8
Hauptgebäude

www.uni-weimar.de/sre
dorothee.rummel@uni-weimar.de