

Who can stay in the residential halls of the Studierendenwerk?

- All students enrolled in the state universities of Thuringia –
Full-time or guest students
- With free capacities also apprentices and trainees

Why should you stay in the residential halls of the Studierendenwerk?

- Affordable rents
- Rents are flat rate and include operating and additional costs
- Single apartments and single rooms are fully furnished
- Internet access easily available
- Living close to the universities

... DAMIT STUDIEREN GELINGT.

Why should you stay in the residential halls of the Studierendenwerk?

- Rental contract just for your room
- No long minimum rental period
- Relocation between the residential halls possible
- Contact person on site with caretakers & tutors

How do I apply?

- Online application can be found on website in the "Housing" section under "Application for Accommodation"
- Applications for the winter semester start on 1 April of each year, for the summer semester on 1 October of each year
- Allocation of rooms based on the date of receipt of the application -> early application increases chances of getting a room

I already applied – What comes next?

- Offers usually send out six weeks prior to the desired move in date
- If offered a room, you have seven days to accept the offer
- Offers are send out by e-mail, so use a valid e-mail address and check your spam files

I accepted an offer – How do I move in?

- Room keys are handed out by the caretaker of your residential hall, but you need to make an appointment
- If you arrive late or on the weekend, a friend will have to pick up the key or you need ask one of the dorm tutors for help
- Rental documents are exchanged by letter and e-mail right now

Have you spent time in a risk area at any specific period within 14 days prior to traveling to Weimar?

- Which areas are risk areas: List of international risk areas
- You will receive information from the person responsible for your residence if you accept the offer
- You need to call the local health department to inform them about your arrival and follow their instructions

How do I reach the department of Student Housing?

- Questions regarding your application can be directed at:
wef@stw-thueringen.de
- By phone at 0049 361 737 1804

