

A. Materials you need:

- A sketchbook (13 x 21.5 cm)
- 30 cm ruler
- Pencil
- Black pen
- 50 Cent Coin

B. Steps:

1. Place the sketchbook vertically.
2. Mark the center of the left and the right edge with a small pencil stroke and draw a straight line between those 2 points. Name the left point "0L" (ZERO L) and the right point "0R" (ZERO R).
3. Mark the top and bottom of the page with a small pencil stroke at centimeter 3, measuring from the left edge. Mark the top and bottom of the page with a small pencil stroke at centimeter 3, measuring from the right edge. Connect the marks on the top edge, with the marks on the bottom edge with straight pencil lines.
5. Name the left point "-1L" and the right point "-1R". Connect the marks on the left and the right edge with a straight pencil line.
6. Mark the center of the top and the bottom edge with a small pencil stroke and draw a straight line.
7. Use your black color pen and connect all of the intersection points you can see with straight lines between "0L", "0R", "-1L" and "-1R".
11. Place the 50 Cent coin at the center of the page between the lines "1L to 1R" and "2L to 2R". Slide the coin to the right side of the page until the coin touches to the vertical line from its right side. Draw a circle alongside the coin with your black pen.
