

Hygiene concept for the DIY Biolab

Marienstraße 7b 2nd floor ; Design of media environments

Responsible persons (until July 2021)

Dr. Julian Chollet, Mindaugas Gapsevicius

Aim of use

The workspaces are primarily aimed at students preparing for their degree. They are also intended to be used in the context of the courses offered by Julian Chollet and Mindaugas Gapsevicius.

1) General guidelines

- Students are only allowed to work in the DIY Biolab on days when one of the above-mentioned room managers is present and must reserve their place in advance
- Coordination of booking https://www.uni-weimar.de/kunst-und-gestaltung/wiki/GMU:DIY_BioLab
- Access is via a Thoska activation for the building and with a key for the room via the secretary's office or via one of the room managers
- The attendance times of the students are recorded in the occupancy list with signature
- In addition, the form for contact data acquisition must be filled out and placed in the box provided (these will then be forwarded by the room managers)
- Two persons can work simultaneously, taking into account a distance of 1.5 m.
- The workplaces are marked with workplace 1 and 2.
- The DIY Biolab is entered through the main staircase of the M5 (see floor plans).
- during the work in the room there is regular ventilation (shock ventilation for 5 - 10 minutes)
- Students use, as far as possible, working materials and equipment only for personal use.
- When working at the microscopes and the sterile workbench, students must always wear a mouth-nose cover
- After completion of the work, all work equipment and the workplace are thoroughly cleaned. (Disposable gloves and suitable cleaning agent are provided)
- Students leave the DIY Biolab through the second staircase of the M7 (see floor plan).
- in case of non-compliance the permission to use the room for the student expires and the activation will be deactivated.

2) Procedure

- Coordination of booking https://www.uni-weimar.de/kunst-und-gestaltung/wiki/GMU:DIY_BioLab
- Keys for the Biolab are handed out in the secretary's office against signature, or can be borrowed from the room managers for the time of use
- Recording of the attendance times of students via the occupancy list
- Registration of contact data via the available form
- The room must be adequately ventilated before leaving.
