

Lustmord

i think about women in society i think about violence in society i think about what makes art popular i think about the history of violence i think about repression i think about war
i think about the use of irony i haven't thought about architecture i think about Weimar i think about the role i think about the privilege of... i think about the privilege of what the unspoken
the sexual
the effect of provocation deconstruction
Picasso
sex crimes
the influence on art
what makes art popular?
the glorification of murderers i think about repetition
