CASE #002

Michael "Mad Mobile" Markert has been killed!
We would be grateful, if you could find his murderer.

Last Saturday the Police found the remains of Michael Markert, the Smartphone King of Weimar. His body seemed to be positioned on the tracks of the Berkaer Bahnhof, making it at first glance look like a suicide. But soon into the investigation it became apparent that poor Michael had been already dead, strangled with an USB-cable, before a train overrode him. It seems to be one of the favorite ways Jens Geelhaar alias the Godfather gets rid of his competition in the business.
