The pedestrian crossing near the Youth Center confused many Belgraders, who jokingly said that they would have to go to training, in order to know who and when has the championship of passage. Many were also further confused by the diagonal pedestrian crossing.

MAKE USELESS GREAT AGAIN

This December, in Belgrade's city center, a new pedestrian crossing was opened.

Few days before the opening ceremony, the regime newspapers wrote that a new, MODERN (!) pedestrian crossing was arriving in Belgrade! The ground was paved and prepared, and the new crossing really became an attraction. Despite all the funny jokes, sarcastic and satirical comments and criticism of citizens who did not need something like this in their lives at all, the ruling party, standing behind this ingenious project, explains how we needed this more than anything and how it will solve almost all of our problems.

Therefore, let us continue the chain of problem solving with meaningless white stripes on the streets that nobody knows how to use.
